How we use your data

The Geffrye Museum would love to involve you as we work towards Unlocking the Geffrye and after we re-open. By providing us with your contact details, we will be able to tell you about our progress, send news of events and exhibitions, and tell you about opportunities to support us. We will also use your data to understand our audiences and to plan our exhibitions, events and fundraising. Sometimes we may undertake research using publicly available data to help us plan our work, including marketing and fundraising, more effectively. We will always respect your right to opt out of our communications. Full details of how we use your data are available at: <https://www.geffrye-museum.org.uk/privacy/>
